CAPTURE TWO OF CERMAK STORE
HOLD-UP MENImmediate Alarm Results in Speedy Capture; One
Burglar Escapes

While no trace of the third bandit implicated in the robbery of Charles Cermak's general store at Loon lake has been found, the other two have been captured and are in the county jail awaiting a hearing.

The hold-up was staged shortly before midnight Tuesday morning. The two men entered the store as Cermak was counting the day's receipts, and ordered him to put his hands up.

Shouting that they meant business, one of the bandits fired a blank cartridge at the proprietor, and covered him with his revolver, while the other scooped up over $30 in cash and a sales ticket from the register.

Cut Wires on Phone.

Before leaving, they cut the telephone wires of a private phone and warned Cermak to keep quiet. However, they neglected to observe the pay telephone, and as soon as they had fled, Cermak telephoned Sheriff Lester Tiffany, and the alarm was spread to all parts of the county.

The capture was made by State Policeman Joseph Earnshaw, who had been called from Libertyville, on the Insull estate at the Townline road and Milwaukee avenue, near Libertyville. Recognizing the car from the description given him, he halted it just as it was turning the corner on its way to Chicago.

One Escapes Into Woods.

One of the three men immediately jumped from the automobile, as though to retrieve something which he had dropped, and dashed into the Insull woods. Although Earnshaw fired at him, he could not leave the other two, and the man escaped.

The two men captured gave their names as James Carter, 29, of Downers Grove, who claims his wife is Mrs. Cermak's niece, and Leo Churchman, 26, Chicago. Carter says that he had just given the men a lift, did not know the men, and had no part in the hold-up.

Two guns were found, one a .38 caliber with one shot fired, as well as the sales ticket from the cash register.

Several of the deputy sheriffs were contacted as to which Cermak was robbed, and rushed out to the summer home of Mayor Cermak on Lake Catherine.

CONDITION OF HUDEC CRITICAL

Although S. J. Hudec, radio and auto accessory dealer, who was struck by a car owned by Glenn Bull, of Winnetka, last Thursday as he was helping Frank Egger repair a tire on North Main street, is said to be resting more comfortably this morning, and to be slightly more cheerful, his condition is still critical.

He is suffering from four skull fractures, a broken collar bone, an arm broken in five places, a broken leg, torn blood vessels, broken ribs, and internal injuries, at the Victory Memorial hospital.

The Call of the Great Outdoors

Rare Lotus Flowers
Bloom In Profusion
In Grass Lake BedsPlants Are Stronger and Blossoms Four Times as Many as Last Year

Lotus flower blooms at Grass lake are expected to be at their prime during the next week, according to information received from residents of that region. They have developed much earlier than in past seasons, due to the unusually hot weather and low lake level. The first golden flowers unfolded last Sunday.

Nature lovers and pilgrims to this lake, one of three in the world in which these flowers may be found, are more than commonly enthused, as authorities say that there will be four times as many blossoms as last year, and that the plants are stronger, and, therefore, will continue to bloom for a longer period.

Flower a Native of Egypt.

The creamy glossy lotus flower is of Egyptian origin, a species of that giant water lily which has been extirpated in Egypt and elsewhere. How this oriental flower came to America, and why it grows in Grass lake and no other lake in this part of the country is an unsolved mystery. It has a peculiar pungent perfume which is said to produce a sleepy, drugged effect upon those near the flowers for any length of time.

The lotus beds were almost exterminated several years ago, when the waters of Grass lake rose above their usual level and covered the plants, but through the efforts and watchful care of the lake owners the beds are returning to their former luxuriant profusion. Two years ago, visitors were allowed to behold the flowers again, but the blossoms were not distributed as souvenirs.

An unprecedented number of tourists and visitors is anticipated to stop for an inspection of the lotus beds in their full glory. The Fox Lake chamber of commerce will co-operate this year with the boat and launch owners in accommodating the crowds for excursion trips.

Girl Dies at Deep Lake
Home After Long IllnessEvelyn C. Brumfield, 19,
Passes Away at Deep
Lake Home

Evelyn C. Brumfield, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brumfield and a resident of Antioch for nearly five years, passed away at her home at Deep lake, Lake Villa, yesterday morning, after an illness of four years. During most of that time, she was confined to her bed.

Evelyn was born at Howard lake, Minnesota, September 22, 1911, and lived there until eight years ago, when she moved with her parents to a farm near Millburn. She lived there three years, and attended the Grubb district school. Soon after they moved to Antioch, about five years ago, she came here, although she attended the high school for a short time.

Last spring she moved to Deep lake. She is survived by her parents, one brother, Russell, of Lake Villa, and a sister, Doris.

Funeral services were held at the home at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with the Reverend Mr. Behl officiating. Interment will be at Howard Lake cemetery, Minnesota.

Lake Villa Woman
Succumbs to Illness

Mrs. John Cribb, of Lake Villa, sister-in-law of Mrs. Lew Van Patten, of Antioch, and daughter-in-law of Mrs. J. R. Cribb, Antioch, passed away at the Prairie du Chien hospital at 5 o'clock this morning, according to word just received.

She was in the Victory Memorial hospital at Waukegan for two weeks, but was removed to the Prairie du Chien hospital a month ago. She has been ill for three months.

She leaves a husband, one daughter and four sons, besides several brothers. Funeral services have not been arranged yet.

The Channel Lake-
Antioch Game Ends
In A Scoreless Tie

Channel Lake Pretzel Hounds met the Antioch Merchants' all-star team in a thrilling soft ball contest which resulted in a scoreless tie, after seven innings of action. Runyard, pitcher for the All-Stars, went the seven stanzas in class form.

Sorenson, pitcher for the Pretzel Hounds, held the All-Stars down and pitched a tight ball in the pinches. Both teams performed very well in the field, but were weak at bat, and the game turned out to be a hurler's duel.

Both captains are angling for a return game as the rivalry is very keen between Antioch and Channel lake.

AGED LOCAL MAN IS
VICTIM OF STROKE
AND AUTO ACCIDENTChas. Mecklenberg, Retired
Farmer, Passes Away
Suddenly

Last rites for Charles Mecklenberg, a resident in this vicinity for nearly fifty years, were held at the Wilmette Lutheran church Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with the Reverend Mr. Jodelle officiating, after a brief service at his home here. Interment is in the Wilmette cemetery.

His death last Friday was caused by cerebral hemorrhage, after a stroke. He was stricken a week ago Saturday, after an auto accident on the preceding Wednesday, when his car was struck from the rear as he slowed to turn at Mathew's Corners on the Silver Lake road. He had failed to signal the car behind him, and his own car was hit forcibly. It was jolted and bounced over a culvert until it came to rest in the ditch. Although he complained of no serious injuries at the time, it is believed that he was hurt internally.

Born in Germany.

Charles Mecklenberg was born October 24, 1852, in Buraw, Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany. His early life and youth were spent there, and he received his education in Germany.

When he was about 25, he married Miss Dorothy Thomas. Three of his children—William, Charles and Annie—were born in his native land, but when he was 30 he and his family came to America, arriving in New York in 1882. They came immediately to this vicinity, and stopped at Bassett station.

His wife passed away in 1912, in Wilmette, where they had lived for ten years. A year later he moved to Grayslake, and in 1918 was wedded to Mrs. Anna Frazier, of Chicago. Until four years ago, they operated a farm at Grayslake, but since that time they have lived on Spafford street in Antioch.

With the exception of the past four years, he has been employed as a farmer. He was a member of the Wilmette Lutheran church.

He is survived by his wife, six children—William and Henry, Trevor, Wm.; Charles, Woodstock, Ill.; Frank, Richmond, Ill.; Mrs. Ernest Loth and Mrs. Arthur Holteford, Silver Lake, Wis.; and two stepchildren—Mildred and Edward Frazier, of Antioch. One son, Fred, died three months ago.

If anyone didn't go out of his way, but merely stopped and asked the most northerly baker in town what he thought of this old universe, he might surprise you with his philosophy. Not that he ever has, yet, but he might. He has plenty of time.

Anyway, he is truthful, which is more than can be said for certain more ambitious persons who have seemingly reached their goal in life—he says he can move, but he doesn't want to.

"Oh, but it's nice to sit here in the morning," he says, blissfully. All very well and good, but what worries him is that he's demoralizing his neighbors, too.

You probably know that the Merchants were defeated by Lake Villa last Monday night. Know why? Well, Otto Klass says that their minds were not on the ball game, due to the presence of a number of the weaker sex at the ball game. He, he, Otto, hard-boiled respectable merchants oughtn't to let a little thing like that fluster them, now had they?

No, we believe that baseball is a great game, and keeps lots of folks out of mischief.

Remember, a while back, when every municipality just wasn't on the map. If it didn't conduct a bathing beauty contest? Well, it seems like time to me that somebody got busy and put on a beach pajama contest.

You see some mighty cute ones flapping merrily down the street and then again, some that—well, ask Archie.

Suppose all the kids on your street have gone out to Lake Katherine to "meet up" with Freddie Lindstrom, New York Giant player.

Mrs. F. E. Clark and son, Earl, drove here from Minneapolis, bringing Mrs. C. B. McCloone, who will visit for six weeks with Mrs. Chris Larson. They also brought Lillian Overton, who has been visiting Mrs. McCloone, home. Mrs. Clark and her son have returned to Minneapolis.

Eighth District
Legion Auxiliary
To Elect Officers

The fourth quarterly meeting of the Eighth District American Legion auxiliary will be held Wednesday, August 5, at 8 o'clock, Daylight Saving Time, at Legion hall, Grayslake.

The guests of honor will be Mrs. C. H. Bartling and Mrs. Ada Mueklestone, first and second vice-presidents of the department of Illinois, and Mrs. Florence Kellogg, junior past department president. The Grayslake members assisting Mrs. Lucy Brown of Lake Forest, Eighth District director, will be Mrs. Jean McFarland, musician; Mrs. Gertrude Strang, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Anna Snyder and Miss Alta Neville, registrars.

The meeting will be of interest and importance to auxiliary members inasmuch as the annual election of officers, district director and alternate district director will take place. News of the state convention at Peoria will be given, and quarterly reports of the activities of the units read.

Fail to Locate
Body of Grayslake
Drowning VictimYouth Commits Suicide by Drowning in Lake
Michigan

Efforts of the Grayslake and Waukegan departments to locate the body of Harold Mueller, 18, Chicago youth who was drowned in Grayslake Sunday, are being continued today, after a 3-day fruitless search.

Boats have been assisting in the search, and grappling hooks procured from Waukegan have been used to no avail.

Mueller had come out in a small rowboat with two companions, Sunday, dressed in a bathing suit, although he could not swim. Reports vary as to whether he jumped from the boat into the water in an attempt to learn to swim, or whether he had lost his hold on the boat as he hung on the end of the boat while his friend rowed. The water is 40 feet deep at the point where he disappeared, and the bottom is covered with weeds, a fact which makes diving impossible.

After Mueller had gone under and failed to appear, his companions cried for help, but when assistance arrived, no trace of the youth was visible.

Youth Drowns Deliberately.

Although no motive could be found for his self-destruction, a verdict of death by suicide was returned in the drowning case of Frank Bruggman, 20-year-old Deerfield boy, by the coroner's jury.

Bruggman had been at a beach party with twenty-eight friends Tuesday evening at North Beach until midnight, when he carried out his threats made earlier in the evening that he would drown himself, and leaped off the end of the pier.

His friend, Robert Juhndred, witness to the tragedy, testified that Bruggman had attempted to jump from the pier earlier in the evening, but had been restrained by his friends. Later he again made a dash for the pier, but Juhndred held him back, while another boy ran to the beach for help.

Juhndred succeeded in calming him, and made him promise to come back to shore, but the moment that Juhndred loosened his hold, the temporarily deranged boy broke away and threw himself into the water, making but a few struggles. His body was not brought to shore until an hour later, when every effort was made to restore his life, but he was finally pronounced dead.

Motive Lacking.

Several other members testified that he had announced his intention of ending it all. When he had arrived at the beach, he had handed over his keys and money to his friends, saying that he would not need them again, and earlier in the evening he had said farewell to one of the girls, saying that she would never see him again. The first time he attempted to leap from the pier, he stated that he had been planning to do it for two weeks.

Bruggman was employed by his father at the American Colorotype Company in Chicago, at a salary of $60 per week. He had no quarrels with any of his girl friends, it was stated, and a motive for the suicide seems to be utterly lacking.

Services for Son of Former Local Woman
Are Held at Hickory

Funeral services for Frank Stevens, of Virginia, Minn., were held Saturday at the Hickory cemetery. He was the youngest son of Mrs. Chase Stevens, formerly Miss Ruby Webb, of Antioch, and was a nephew of Chas. Webb.

Mrs. Elberta Stragham spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Tate, of Chicago, at their cottage at Lake Marie.

INJUNCTION SUIT IS DROPPED WHEN
STATE MEETS TERMSR. C. Abt's Option on Hatch Land Recognized by the StatePARLEY ENDS WITH THIRD SESSION YESTERDAY

Agreeing to terms submitted by attorneys for Robert C. Abt in his suit for injunction to restrain the state highway department from building highway No. 173 through the Frank W. Hatch property without first obtaining his signature on the dedication, the state represented by Assistant Attorney General Wood, yesterday closed its part in the case and Abt dropped the suit.

Abt, failing to have his rights recognized by the county and township highway officials, brought injunction proceedings Friday, claiming that in securing the dedication of the road for $1 from Frank W. Hatch, deed holder the county ignored Abt's option on the land. The option was obtained on the property in 1923, according to Abt, who is said to have paid $8000 toward the purchase of the land. Difficulties encountered in clearing the title have held up the actual transfer of the deed for eight years.

Abt Submits Terms.

Hatch contended that he understood that Abt had agreed to terms submitted by road officials, but the latter swore that Abt had not presented himself as a claimant to the property.

The terms submitted by Abt demanded that the state build a fence on both sides of the half-mile right-of-way, that the culvert over the old river bed be raised to permit the passage of boats, and that the old right-of-way be dedicated to the Hatch estate.

Assistant Attorney General Wood, acting for the state, acceded to these demands, thus closing the third hearing before Judge Ralph Dady within the week.

County May Act?

County Highway Superintendent R. M. Lobdell, displeased at the state's willingness to compromise together with Assistant State's Attorney George McGaughey and Attorney Sidney Black, announced that they would fight for condemnation of the land. Concessions granted Abt will cost $1,500, it was estimated, without figuring the value of the strip of abandoned road which will revert to the property.

Condemnation proceedings, officials estimate, would result in a saving of $900, provided, of course, that a jury would grant no more than $600 for the half-mile strip of this valuable property, and the old road would remain the property of the state.

Lobdell claims the state, through its action in the matter, has set a precedent which will make it extremely difficult to get dedications without exorbitant concessions.

Attorney Hall, representing Abt, who had demanded $150 attorney's fee yesterday withdrew his plea and accepted the state's pledges. The state has no funds for this purpose and the matter of paying was put up to the county.

It is believed that construction on the road will now continue unhampered.

ARMED BANDITS ROB
HUNT'S GAS STATIONYouths Ask for Pop—Then Seize Cash, Radio, and Make Escape

Using a gun to intimidate William Waters, attendant at Hunt's filling station, two youthful bandits robbed the station of $30 in cash, a radio, cigarettes and cigars, at 3:30 this morning. The total loss was estimated at $260.

They drove up to the station in a Ford coupe and stopped on the pretense of wanting some pop, but when young Waters turned to serve them, one of the bandits thrust a gun into his side, while the other pillaged the cash register and counter. He was armed with a gas pipe.

Just before leaving, they jerked the telephone cord from the wall. After they had fled south down route No. 59, Waters hurried to town in search of an officer, and finding two Forest View policemen in one of the cafes, notified them of the hold-up.

The Forest View men immediately gave chase but after 10 miles lost the trail, and returned to Antioch. Lake county sheriffs men were searching for the bandits today.

While Mark Twain was editor of a Missouri paper, a subscriber wrote him saying he had found a spider in his paper and asking Mark whether this was a sign of good or bad luck. The following was the reply of the well-known humorist:

"Old Subscriber: Finding a spider in your paper was neither good luck nor bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant is not advertising, so that he can go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

TAXATION RETARDS PROSPERITY

"I do not believe the next session of Congress will increase federal taxes, nor do I see any necessity for so doing. Federal, state and local taxation is as heavy as the country can bear. . . . Combined taxes are more than three times as great as prior to 1914. Taxation has become a great burden and if continued, much less increased, will be a great detriment not only to our home enterprises but to our foreign trade and commerce. . . ."

"It would be unwise to retard the return of prosperity by the imposition of any additional tax burdens at this time. . . ."—Senator Swanson, Democrat, Virginia.

THE "FOOD" HIGHWAY

To the average city dweller, the word "highway" brings up visions of the expensive, high-speed roads that link the states of the nation together.

But there is another kind of highway that is of equal importance—the road that connects the small towns and farming areas with the main artery of travel.

Secondary, or "food" roads link nature with the nation's dining tables. Over them come the fruit and vegetables, the dairy products and the cattle, hogs and grain that are necessary to the maintenance of life in our great cities.

Almost every state is now working on a program for development of its secondary road system. The need of moderate-cost, full-width, waterproof-surfaced highways to farms and small towns has never been so apparent as now.

Such roads are as vital to a nation's social and economic progress as main highways.

ROMANTIC MEN

Male stars of a large motion picture company must smoke no more cigars because, their employers say, cigars are not romantic. Without questioning the authority of Hollywood (where kisses are measured by the front foot of celluloid) on romance, it may be mildly objected that this is a rather sad judgment on the love affairs of our recent ancestors. Men have been smoking for nearly 300 years, and for nearly a third of that time the cigar has been the gentleman's smoke. Were all of our mothers, grandmothers and great-grandmothers dragged protesting to the altar by unromantic, cigar-smoking brutes?

Middle-aged and even young men who have been drafted to front parlors to smoke the moths out of lace curtains and carpets, know that the rich fragrance of a good cigar cannot be completely disagreeable to women. Richard Dix and Rod La Roque, both of whom have been photographed smoking cigars, have attained a certain romantic luster for the eyes of women movie-goers in spite of, or perhaps partly because of, their smoking preference.

The cigarette is no longer the peculiar property of the male. In high-class tobacco shops in New York, pipes which will hold about enough tobacco to kill a moth, with gold and platinum decorations and studdings of semi-precious stones, are sold to women—the pipe is no longer a purely masculine appurtenance.

Yet even in these days of depression, 6,000,000,000 cigars are sold in the United States every year—to men only. The cigar is still a distinctive badge of masculinity.

HICKORY SEWING CLUB RESUMES ITS MEETINGS

Body of Frank Stevens Is Interred in Hickory Cemetery

The cheerful Stitches met at the schoolhouse last Wednesday afternoon. Following the business meeting, Ruth Johnson, Gwen Protine and Pearl Edwards gave talks on "Correct Posture." Afterward, they cut out dresses. Miss Dolores Reuter was a visitor. Root beer was served for refreshments.

The body of Frank Stevens, of Virginia, Minn., was interred at Hickory Union cemetery, Saturday morning. He was a son of Mrs. Ruby Stevens.

Miss Caryl Tillotson spent a few days of last week at the home of her friend, Ruth Ames, at Gurnee.

Miss Thelma Pullen returned home last Tuesday, after spending a week visiting her sister, Mrs. David Nevelier, at Union Grove.

Friends and neighbors of Carlisle Wells surprised him at his home last Wednesday evening in honor of his birthday.

Mrs. Emmet King and Mrs. George Tillotson visited relatives in Kenosha Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Petersen and family of Chicago, visited the Chris Paulsen home, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Nettie Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Wells and baby motored to Waukegan last Thursday evening and called on Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gillings.

Mrs. Gillings has been confined to her bed with heart trouble. Thursday was her birthday.

Mrs. Paul Protine and children and Mr. and Mrs. John Shearer and daughter visited relatives at Lake Forest, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sorenson, of Waukegan, called at Chris Paulsen's, Sunday evening.

Miss Shirley Hollenbeck, who went to the Michael Reese hospital in Chicago, July first, for three months' training, was home Sunday.

Miss Lois Hunter was a dinner guest of her friend Ruth McCorkle, at her home at Channel lake, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazier Hollenbeck and children, of Edison Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Hollenbeck and children, of Chicago, spent Sunday at O. L. Hollenbeck's.

MANY STATES SAY "THUMBS DOWN" ON THUMB TOURISTS

Hitch-Hikers Hit by Law to Protect Kindhearted Motorists

(Antioch News Special Service)
Chicago, Ill., July 16—With a view to protecting kindhearted motorists from robbery or murder, eight states and the District of Columbia have passed laws which prohibit hitch-hikers from soliciting rides from the roadside in private automobiles, according to the Chicago motor club.

"The states which have passed such laws are Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, Oregon, and Wisconsin," the motor club declared in a statement. "While there is no doubt that the majority of hitch-hikers have honest intentions, the motorist cannot distinguish between them, and the only safe course open to him is to refuse assistance to all."

"Seldom does a day pass but what a motorist is robbed by these thumb tourists. A typical case recently was reported to the Detroit police. A Detroit driver declared that two youths hitch-hiking from Cleveland to Detroit robbed him of his car, suitcase, and $35. There are cases on record where in the man given a lift has murdered his benefactor."

Town Team Takes Game From Wright School Sluggers

Local Boys Are Held to Ten Hits But Pile Up Twelve Runs

The Antioch Town team turned in a win last Saturday when they defeated Wright school, Libertyville, by a score of 12-9. The local boys boosted their batting averages considerably by clouting the ball to all corners of the field, and caused the Wright pitcher some worry when he attempted to suppress them.

Willitt socked out a home run to lead the extra base hitting. Patterson, said to be the mainstay of the team, hurled excellent ball, as usual. Both teams play consistent ball, with no one of the batters making spectacular plays.

Antioch is planning to give Pleasant Prairie a battle royal when the Prairie boys come here for a return game Sunday. The first game was taken by Pleasant Prairie, but the Town team is determined to make it 1-1.

CHANNEL LAKE COUNTRY CLUB NEWS

No special event marked the last week-end at the Channel Lake country club, but the golf course had its full quota, the game being a never-ending source of pleasure to those interested.

The card game Tuesday was well attended, the usual delightful luncheon was served by a committee composed of Mrs. Gorsuch, Mrs. Simons and Mrs. Cooper, and seven tables of bridge enjoyed the game, the prizes going to Mrs. Sandell, Mrs. Brock, and Mrs. Warriner.

The golf event for the ladies this week is a choice of six holes for the low score also the lowest number of putts. Next week Thursday, July 30, is guest day, and it is hoped many friends may be invited to join the players on that day. Do not forget the appetizing luncheons which always follow the game, and make reservations at the clubhouse.

WILMOT PIRATES ROUT SALEM 22-2

The Wilmot Pirates traveled over to Paducah lake Sunday to give the Salem club a severe 22-2 trouncing. The Pirates hammered the combined offerings of Mastine and Doc Koehn for twenty-two runs including home runs by McDougall, Aaron Smith and Rasmussen. Oetting, Shubert, Frank, Norm Richter, and Aaron Smith with three hits each, and McDougall with a home run and a single, were the leading hitters for the Pirates. Aaron Smith with a single, double and a home run that cleared the fence on the far side of highway No. 50, drove in six runs for the visitors and crossed the home plate with runs five times.

Norm Richter allowed only six scattered hits three of which came in the ninth inning, and struck out sixteen men. Richter struck out the entire side in the second, fourth and ninth innings. Richter was given errorless support by his teammates. Ben Fox, Salem manager, with a single and a home run was the demon slugger of the Salem club.

MERCHANTS SHADOW FIREMEN BY 29-4

The Merchants hooked the Firemen for an easy victory last Thursday evening, when they walked away with the game, 29-4. All of the regulars on the Firemen's team failed to appear for the game, which gave the Merchants an extra advantage. The Merchants enjoyed one grand sluffest, everyone scoring at least two runs, while Middleton, Mastine and Hanke each made four.

BANKERS SUGGEST BANKING REFORMS

Economic Policy Commission of American Bankers Association Recommends Aids to Progress in Banking Business.

FOLLOWING a nation-wide survey of banking conditions and opinions among bankers, the Economic Policy Commission of the American Bankers Association has made the following recommendations for banking betterment:

"Under the category of improved bank management specific improvements we might summarize as:

"(1) Liquidation or consolidation of banks where changed local economic conditions render this desirable;

"(2) Wider affiliation among state banks with the Federal Reserve System;

"(3) Development of limited branch banking where economic conditions and legal authority make this expedient;

"(4) A more general practice, especially lacking among country banks, to analyze the cost of carrying accounts and other operating details and the establishment of proper service charges to make all classes of function profitable;

"(5) A more general application of the theory and practice of secondary reserves;

"(6) Avoidance by banks of undue borrowing merely to increase their own profits by relending at higher rates, or to over-expand credit to local business in order to increase their own business;

"(7) Cooperation among bankers in local communities through city, county or regional clearinghouses so as to promote mutually beneficial conditions and practices;

"(8) The insistence upon higher educational effort and qualifications among employees, especially those to be trusted with executive duties.

Legislative Measures Proposed

"There are some external measures, along moderate legislative and supervisory lines, that we also believe would help strengthen banking. Among these are:

"(1) The broadening in the states of branch banking laws where conditions warrant an extension of this type of banking service to the public;

"(2) The establishment of sound minimum capital funds under which banks will be allowed to operate, which should be materially higher than now prevails in most states; specifically, we believe that the minimum capital with which any new bank shall be chartered, whether state or national, should be at least $50,000;

"(3) The provision of funds and regulations to keep the official staffs of all supervisory departments up to a level of ability and integrity that will universally inspire confidence among bankers whose activities they are empowered to review, and will supply real added defenses to the public interests they are appointed to protect.

"(4) In connection with the policies of bank chartering departments, we would recommend that, even to a greater extent than is now the practice, the greatest care and moderation should be exercised in granting new charters, so as to guard against over-banking or the launching of new banks by unqualified persons, which have doubtless been serious factors in the bank failure situation in the past.

"(5) Also, referring to Federal Reserve practice not requiring legislation, we believe that the Federal Reserve Banks should exercise more freely their rights to examine banks and use their discretionary power to refuse redemptory facilities to banks indulging in objectionable banking methods."

Banker-Farmer Plan

An editorial in Southern Cultivator says: "Favorable comment is being made upon the wisdom and promised results of the farmer-banker agricultural program in Georgia. Industrial leaders and publicists, noting that 115 of the 161 counties in the state have planned prosecution of the 'live-at-home' farm reform, are regarding the working out of the plan this year as of more interest to American farmers than any developments of the Soviet five-year plan in Russia. Agricultural authorities are of the opinion that if Georgia farmers, backed by our cooperating bankers and supply men, demonstrate the expected economies and profits of this home-support plan, it will quickly become a contagious custom all over the agricultural areas of the nation. It will be the writing of a new declaration of independence for the individualist farmers of the country, putting them upon solid terms of credit and prosperity without need of recourse to federal or state financial relief measures. The man of the soil who lives year in and year out on his own will stand up in his community as an economic freeman, making his own terms with the world of finance and trade."

A meeting of farmers, bankers, and newspaper men of St. Croix County, Wisconsin, recently organized a drive to promote the growing of alfalfa in such quantity as to save the dairyman the expense of commercial feed, and insure greater dairy profits. It is planned in this campaign to have, within the next three years, at least one acre of alfalfa produced for each dairy cow in the county, or a total of about 40,000 acres.

How to play Bridge AUCTION or CONTRACT

by Wynne Ferguson
Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGE"

Copyright, 1930, by Hoyle, Jr.

ARTICLE No. 20

One of our correspondents from Texas has forwarded the following example hand, which is most interesting both from the viewpoint of bidding and play:

Example Hand

Hearts — K, J, 10, 9, 8
Clubs — 10, 9, 2
Diamonds — J, 4, 3, 2
Spades — 8

Hearts — Q, 5, 2
Clubs — A, K, Q, 8, 3
Diamonds — Q, 9, 7
Spades — K, 9

Hearts — 7, 4
Clubs — 5, 4
Diamonds — A, 10, 5
Spades — 10, 7, 6, 5, 4, 2

Hearts — A, 6, 3
Clubs — J, 7, 6
Diamonds — K, 8, 6
Spades — A, Q, J, 3

AUCTION BIDDING:

No score, first game. Z dealt and bid one no trump. A passed and Y bid two hearts. All passed and B opened with the ace of diamonds. Z played the six, A the nine and Y the deuce. B then played the seven of spades, which Z won with the ace.

Question No. 1—How should Y play the hand from now on?

Question No. 2—What was the correct opening lead by B?

Question No. 3—What was the correct bidding both at Auction and Contract?

Question No. 4—The correct play. At trick three, Z should lead the king of spades and, when A plays the king, Y should trump with the eight of hearts. This play depends on the assumption that A must hold the king of spades alone, for in no other way can A Y Z score game. The lead of the seven of spades at trick two apparently places the king, ten, nine in A's hand but, if that is so, there is no way for Y Z to make game for Y must set up two spade tricks and find the queen of hearts in A's hand to make game.

At trick four, Y should lead the nine of hearts from his own hand and win the trick in Z's hand with the ace. A lead of the ten of hearts from Z's hand and the play of the ten, followed by the king in Y's hand and takes out the opponents' trumps. Y should now lead the king of diamonds and win the trick with the king in Z's hand. Z should now lead the queen, jack of spades on which Y should discard two of his losing clubs. Y should then play the eight of diamonds, which A wins with the queen. Now all that A B can win in one club trick so that Y Z score four odd and game. The play of this hand is a fine example of figuring out how the adverse cards must lie in order to make game and then playing accordingly.

Question No. 2—What was the correct opening lead by B? In my opinion, B's correct lead is the five of spades. It usually is bad policy to play an ace and thus give up control of the one suit that may enable you to save game. On the other hand, the lead of a long weak suit rarely causes any trouble. The opening lead of the spade saves game, even if Y plays the ace and a low spade at once. He can thus set up the spades, but he must take out the trumps before leading the set-up spades; and, if he does, he can not enter Z's hand to lead the spades. If Y leads a diamond, B should play the ace and lead the clubs, thus saving game. It is a fine example of a poor opening lead causing the loss of a game.

Question No. 3—What was the correct bidding, both at Auction and Contract? The correct bidding of these four hands involves some interesting points.

AUCTION BIDDING:

Z's best opening bid is one no trump, although one spade also is sound. The only reason for preferring the one no trump bid is that the distribution is so even, and therefore more favorable to a no trump than a spade bid. After the no trump bid, A should pass. He has the opening lead and therefore no reason to show his club suit. To do so would be bad bidding, as it would act as a warning to the opponents. Y should take out his partner's no trump bid with two hearts. The singleton spade is a weakness in no trumps, but not in hearts.

B and Z should pass; but A's proper bid is three clubs. He no longer has the lead and yet wants to be sure that his partner opens the club suit. His hand is so strong that he does not have to fear a double, and any other lead may give Y Z a chance for game. This hand is a fine example of losing a game by failure to make a sound bid. If A bids three clubs and is overbid by three hearts, B will open the clubs and Y Z can never score game for A B will make three club tricks and at least one diamond trick against any defense.

CONTRACT BIDDING:

Z—one no trump; A pass; Y two hearts; B pass; Z three hearts; A four clubs; Y pass; B pass; Z double and all pass. A must lose his contract by three tricks as Y will open the eight of spades and trump the second spade. Y Z must now make two heart tricks, one diamond and one club trick.

Here is another hand from our Texas correspondent:

Hearts — A, K, 8, 5, 3
Clubs — A, 8, 4
Diamonds — A, 6, 5
Spades — J, 5

Y

Z

Score — Y Z—game in and 20 on the score; A B—0. Z dealt; bid one no trump and A passed. What is Y's bid, both at Auction and at Contract?

AUCTION BIDDING:

Y should bid two hearts. There is an old rule that still holds good, and that is: "The stronger the hand, the better the take out". Of course, Y's hand holds remarkable help for the no trump bid, but it also holds great possibilities for the heart bid and the latter is safer than the first. For that reason, the two-heart bid is preferable. Then again, if Z does not like the hearts and rebids his no trump, Y's hand offers wonderful support. Bid major suits freely over partner's no trump and you will win many a game not otherwise possible.

CONTRACT BIDDING:

Z—one no trump; A pass; Y should bid four hearts to show Z a sure game in hearts and unusual support. If Z should bid four no trumps, Y should bid six no trumps. It is a powerful hand and should be bid for the maximum.

LAKE COUNTY Farm Bureau NEWS NOTES

4-H Club Activities in July.

The boys' 4-H club, under the leadership of Albert Herman and H. C. Glickerson, will hold judging contests this week. Dairy judging teams from the eleven clubs judged two rings each of Holsteins, Jerseys, Brown Swiss and Guernseys Wednesday of this week. Today (Thursday) the fat stock judging teams will judge two rings each of horses, beef cattle, sheep and hogs. The winning dairy team will be sent to Urbana to compete in the state contest, August 8.

There will be a county contest for the girls' demonstration teams at Gages Community Hall, Graylake, Friday, July 31.

The boys' demonstration contest will also be held Friday, July 31, at the Farm Bureau building. The winners of those contests will compete in the district contest and at the State Fair.

Saturday, a series of ball games was played to work off the first games of a tournament between the 4-H clubs. Antioch 4-H club played Warren 4-H club, at Antioch; Lake Villa 4-H club vs. Hickory 4-H club, at Wedges Corners; Mill Creek 4-H club vs. Northwestern 4-H club, at Warren high school; Fremont 4-H club vs. Graylake 4-H club, at Graylake park; Lake Zurich 4-H club vs. The Model 4-H club, at Lake Zurich. Wauconda 4-H club will not play until July 25, when the second of the series will be played.

This year there are 167 girls enrolled in 4-H club work, and 206 boys. The boys have eighty-two calves, seventy-one of which are purebred; seventy-four pigs, thirty-one sheep, and several hundred chickens. In addition to these there are eighteen

Lake Villa Team Leads League After Win from Merchants

The Firemen Surprise Moose Team With a 16-12 Defeat

The hard-hitting Lake Villa team socked rings around the Merchants when they met Monday evening, taking the game by a 21-9 score.

Although the Lake Villa pitcher, Loido, allowed fifteen hits, he and his supporting teammates were successful in keeping the runs of the Merchants down to nine. Murrie was the only one of the local boys scoring more than one run, but Kapple, Loido, Fuchs and Wood, of Lake Villa, increased their team's score by at least three runs each.

At the end of the third inning, Lake Villa led by only one run, but five runs in the fifth and eight runs in the eighth sent them far ahead.

The local men were decidedly off their form, as shown by the large number of errors made. However, Mastine, Middleton and Kufalk were all there at their fielding posts.

A return game will be played on the Antioch lot next Thursday when the Merchants will attempt to turn the tables on Lake Villa.

Firemen Win.

The Firemen won, for the first time this season, Monday evening when they took the Antioch all-powerful Moose for a tumble, 16-12.

Both teams were off for a fine start, the Moose scoring five runs in the first, and the Firemen four. After the third inning, in which they made four runs, the Moose let down and garnered only three runs in the remaining six innings. Although Runyard, Moose hurler, allowed one less hit than Down, pitcher for the Firemen, the Moose were unable to make all of their hits count, while their opponents scored several on errors.

Shunneson and E. Hallways were the hard hitters for the Moose, while Peterson and Nixon played real ball for the Firemen. Both teams made an unusually large number of errors.

POST OFFICE IN NEW DRIVE ON LOTTERY NEWS

Washington, July 12—Determination of the postoffice department to enforce strictly the law prohibiting publication of prize lists or awards of lotteries is indicated in a militant statement issued by Horace J. Donnelly, solicitor of the department who declared that publishing such news stories is "an unlawful practice which has recently grown to such huge proportions in American cities, towns and villages as to border on a national disgrace."

Although he did not specifically say so, Mr. Donnelly indicated that the federal authorities would prefer to have newspapers agree voluntarily to omit lottery news stories rather than to proceed against them or to bar them from the mails. He said:

"With their attention thus called to the provisions of the law it is not believed that hereafter newspapers will desire to publish the matter the statute forbids; nor is it believed that so many individuals will hereafter be disposed to violate the law after becoming more familiar with it."

Mr. Donnelly, in his statement, said: "Complaints from every section of the country have reached the department against these wholesale violations of the law." He pointed out that many so-called sweepstakes were "pure fakes." Most of them, he said were based on some horse race but that prize winners were determined as in other straight-out lotteries.

He pointed out that many so-called sweepstakes were "pure fakes." Most of them, he said were based on some horse race but that prize winners were determined as in other straight-out lotteries.

"Life" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 10. The Golden Text was, "As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself" (John 5:26).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death" (Proverbs 12:28).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Life is deathless. Life is the origin and ultimate of man, never attainable through death, but gained by walking in the pathway of Truth both before and after that which is called death" (p. 487).

Think It Over

Taxpayers' Questions

How is the poor farm to be financed after the relief of the poor has passed from the county to the townships, is another "bonehead" question asked in the press by the county board's chairman, who apparently appreciates the question by taxpayers as to how the county hospital is to be kept open if the supervisors put the poor in the local hospitals of several townships like Waukegan, Deerfield and Libertyville.

When the county board chairman proposes to have the townships issue bonds to provide for poor relief pending a tax levy a long time hence, why does he not indicate what provision of the statute provides for a vote in the township for poor relief bonds?

Who can find any other practical, immediate, legal remedy for the paupers' plight than to vote out all the supervisors and replace them with three county commissioners in order to do away with all township government and place the county in charge of all the present township affairs? Would not such a change save sufficient to pay for the poor relief deficit?

Will the taxpayers in a Lake county township over vote for paupers' relief bonds so long as much money is squandered upon the highways outside of cities in townships and as long as the overseer-of-the-poor supervisor gets several thousand dollars salary yearly for disbursing poor relief funds?

Will the late commissioners of Waukegan tell the taxpayers how it was that they left to the aldermanic council unpaid bills: Street lighting, $23,573.62; fire department bills, $12,670.38; police, $8,760.38, and waterworks No. 2, $8,000, so far as now known, or in all at least $53,174?

In the campaign for the mayor's job in Waukegan, why were $53,174 unpaid bills concealed from the taxpayers?

With street lighting bills of $23,573 unpaid from the last year, how does the Waukegan council fancy it can pay up this deficit and maintain the current lighting system, to say nothing of those needless ornamental lights which are being installed in the district of two cemeteries?

Some of the local auto owners in Waukegan are accused in the local press of faking outside addresses to dodge the wheel tax. However, the taxpayers have not yet been told of the proposition to issue duplicate tags and distribute them free among certain politicians who, to recapture, are supposed to see to it that numerous favored ones are left off of the personal property tax list.

While the results of a municipal audit are somewhat gruesome to date, are not taxpayers fully justified in taking practical means, by an audit, to stop the conversion of public funds to the private use of a public official?

When will the militant taxpayers in Waukegan get an answer from the public treasurers as to the amount of the public funds on deposit with the closed banks and the amount of the depository bond protecting the same? Why so much delay and allance about such a matter of the highest public trust?

Has anybody questioned the character of the transaction in providing a depository bond if the surety company got for itself any of the bank's security to indemnify itself?

Will the Waukegan current audit reveal to the taxpayers who, if anybody, has been by-passing water around the meters in industrial places, getting by with no water meters, and delaying or dodging water bills simply because of holding high official position?

What taxpayers feel that the No. Jackson street property owners, in docket No. 735, paying, who are paying over $10,000 for concrete pavement not there, are getting a square deal, when the present mayor and aldermen insist upon keeping on the city's payroll the person who certified the final estimate which caused these property owners to be mulcted $10,000 plus for pavement they never got and which does not exist?

By what right does the Waukegan water board function and where is its money? How will the next installment of interest and principal on the $1,250,000 water certificates be paid?

How is it that the taxpayers are told that the mayor and aldermen have no jurisdiction over the Waukegan waterworks when the council has just appropriated for the same?

When the Waukegan appropriation bill includes for 1931-32 the item, "contingent liabilities (if any) on payment and interest on City Hall property (Marley Site) $20,000," is it an indication that the aldermanic council will perform the election promise to get out of the Higley Barn with...

SEN. PADDOCK DID NOT VOTE ON POOR BILL, RECORDS SHOW

Sen. Finn Sponsors Bill to Shift Pauper Care to Townships

Senator Ray Paddock was not the author of senate bill No. 723 popularly referred to as the "bonehead pauper law," which took the burden of caring for the poor off the county and placed it upon the townships in Illinois counties having township organization and less than 500,000 population. It was disclosed this week when the senate Journal was examined following the receipt of a letter from Senator Paddock in which he denies emphatically that he sponsored the bill.

The senator also declares that he did not even vote for the bill. Neither did he vote against it, according to the recorded vote taken June 3, although he did vote for senate bill No. 687 that same day, indicating his presence at that day's session of the senate. Senator Paddock was referred to as sponsor of the bill in the Lake County Taxpayers News page of the Antioch News.

The News is glad to print the Senator's letter which corrects the erroneous statement regarding the origin of the bill.

Senator Paddock's Statement.
July 17, 1931

Mr. H. B. Gaston,
Publisher Antioch News,
Antioch, Ill.

Dear Mr. Gaston:

In the last two issues of your paper in the section set aside for the use of "The Lake County Taxpayers News" there appeared articles indicating that I was the author of the bill whereby townships were required to care for the poor.

In connection with these statements will advise that Senator Finn was the sponsor of the bill and if the writer of the articles will consult the Senate Journal he will discover that I did not vote for the bill.

I assume that you do not wish to have misleading statements enter the columns of your paper, and no doubt it was done through mistake.

With best wishes, I am,

Yours very truly,

RAY PADDOCK.

Representatives Vote "Yes."

While Senator Paddock was silent following the third reading of the bill which became law upon receiving the governor's signature June 29 leaving many Lake county paupers in dire distress until means of relief are found, the three eighth district representatives were unanimous in support of the measure, according to the House Journal, June 19, in which Representatives Lyons, Carrol and Bolger are recorded as having voted in the affirmative upon the question, "Shall this bill pass?" The House vote was: Yeas, 33; nays, 13.

When the press indicates that North Chicago is consolidating its municipal positions to save the taxpayers' money in these hard times, is it any wonder that the Waukegan taxpayers are discussing why the Mayor Peterson administration does not consolidate all the jobs in the building department under the building commissioner who is advertised as technically qualified to perform all the duties?

If a building commissioner has time on the side to merchandise materials for buildings, have not the taxpayers a right to demand that all his time be used for the public at the big salary paid and that he perform as many duties as possible during working hours just the same as the taxpayers who toll for the taxes which buy the bread and butter for all public officials?

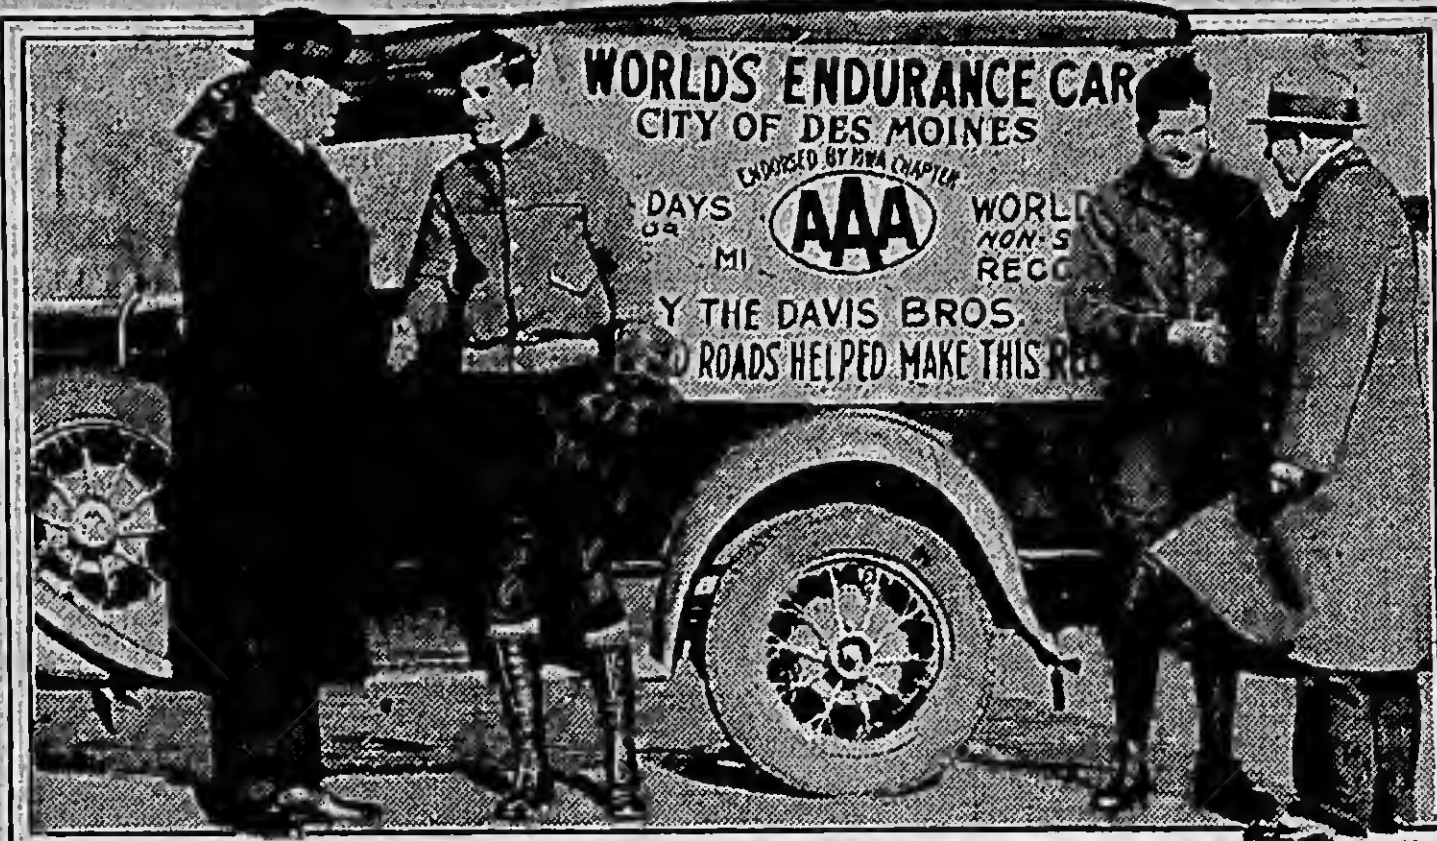

If the building ordinance requires a building permit for all structures costing $100 and more, what right and power has anybody to waive the license fee for anybody? Should not all property owners be treated alike?

Has any taxpayer read any call for bids for printing the official proceedings and public notices of the city of Waukegan?

After being twice defeated by the organized militant taxpayers how many taxpayers relish the peppy job of again fighting the unseen interests who again push the proposition of a Lake Shore Drive in Waukegan?

With two banks closed, with special assessment, installment payments and taxes show or defaulted, with merchants hard-pressed to pay their taxes and much more their rent, would not a publisher secure more ads and a payroll quicker, if the taxpayers were given a breathing spell on increased taxation for a Lake Shore Drive, especially at an hour when a big tax increase is discussed for the care of the poor who are placed by the county on the townships, thanks to the politicians' picnic schemes?

Iowa Brothers Set New World's Record in Ford

IOWA state officials and civic leaders witnessed the establishment of a new world's non-motor, non-wheel stop automobile endurance record recently, when Ralph and Rolland Davis, brothers, brought their Model A Ford to a halt at the east entrance of the state capitol in Des Moines after 2,775 hours and 46 minutes of continuous driving.

When Governor Hammill, standing with Walter Ferrell, executive secretary of the Iowa Chapter of the American Automobile Association, gave the signal to stop, the Ford had traveled a total of 47,138.3 miles over all sorts of roads in all sorts of weather and had exceeded by 33,680 miles and more than 2,335 hours the American non-stop endurance record which, theretofore officially recognized, was made by a much heavier car under almost ideal conditions on the Indianapolis speedway last year. In the course of the endurance run, the car, known as "The City of Des Moines," covered practically the entire state of Iowa.

Engineers who examined the Ford at the conclusion of the run asserted that neither engine nor chassis showed evidence of the gruelling strains to which they were subjected during the 116 days of continuous driving. Both apparently, according to the engineers, would have been good for another 50,000 miles or more.

LEVYING TAXES IS GREATEST INDOOR SPORT, FARMER SAYS

Political and Business Connections Have Effect on Values

Two things are unavoidable—Death and Taxes.

A doctor helps bring you into the world, prolongs your span of life and makes your departure less painful. Taxes start at birth, increase during life, and continue even after death. A doctor lengthens your life, but taxes shorten it.

The greatest indoor sport today is the levying of more taxes. Legislators lie awake nights devising bills for more tax money. City and county officials publish lengthy reports showing economy in public expenses, but little old common people pay a little more tax each year.

Taxes have caused more wars and overthrow more governments than any other thing since Adam and Eve got put out for not obeying the regulations in their apartment.

There are two kinds of taxes—direct and indirect. A direct tax takes your money like a highwayman, at the point of a gun. An indirect tax picks your pocket.

Taxes are necessary for the business-like conduct of government. If taxes are high you can be sure there is a colored man some place in the legislature, and the tax victim is getting too little actual, useful return for his tax dollar.

Taxes are supposed to be levied and collected according to a person's ability to pay. The more houses and lands, flocks and herds or stocks and bonds, the more tax from the owner.

House and lands or flocks and herds are property which cannot be hidden from the assessor. Stocks and bonds or notes and mortgages can be put in a deposit box and the assessor never finds them.

Taxes on real estate and personal property are based on a certain percent of the real value, and are a direct tax. An indirect tax is one which is passed on to the consumer, and is paid in every purchase made, whether it be made for clothes, food or rent.

Property values for direct taxes are fixed by an assessor and depend upon the location and improvements. Friendship and political or business relations can also affect assessed values. Property values in the same neighborhood, fixed by two different assessors will be greatly different.

Selling prices of articles on which there is an indirect tax vary according to the expense and profit the dealer imagines he must have.

England tried to collect a small tax on tea, and today we have the United States. England now has stirred up India by a tax on salt.

Taxes and the weather are the most discussed subjects in the country today, but no one seems to be able to change them.

Some self-proclaimed citizens and taxpayers who have not paid their taxes for the past year even advocate further tax increases for bond issues, because it is just a little tax.

CITY'S BIG TAX BILL STARTLES CITIZENS

Appropriate $1,556,429.65; Unpaid Claims Total $53,000

The current appropriation bill ordinance of the city of Waukegan is causing much comment among the organized militant taxpayers who supported Russ Alford for mayor.

The Mayor Peterson administration has passed a bill with appropriations aggregating $1,556,429.65, of which $592,229.65 is for general corporate purposes.

The last bill of Mayor Yager's administration was $1,565,407.68, of which $513,300 was for general corporate purposes.

The current school bill is $550,000, while the last year's was $560,000, or $10,000 more than the current bill and this more than makes up the difference between the totals of the two administrations.

The taxpayer gets very little relief by lower total appropriations, the sum being only $8,978.93.

Instead of proposing $592,229 for the general corporate purposes, the taxpayers' candidate, Russ Alford, suggested a budget of $317,782, and he very frankly printed that he could not find sufficient income to meet such a budget, which he indicated might be $9,992 short.

The Mayor Peterson administration proposes to spend for corporate purposes $274,447, or about 55 per cent more than the taxpayers' leader suggested, and $284,429 more than Mr. Alford believed could be raised.

The current bill provides for the fire department, $106,820, while Mr. Alford had in his budget, $66,779; however, the voters since that time voted for a 2 mills tax for the fire department and this may raise $40,000 which Mr. Alford could not include in his budget estimate.

The current bill has for the No. 2 waterworks $226,150, against $280,107 last year, a difference of $53,957 savings; however, all but about $10,000 of this disappears in the total appropriations in which the taxpayers are ultimately mostly interested in.

With two banks closed when the appropriation bill was passed and special assessments and installments coming in slowly and much property being forfeited for taxes, the organized taxpayers are at a complete loss to understand how the Waukegan council figures to make both ends meet and finance the propositions authorized by their current appropriation bill. The taxpayers are awaiting some explanation from the Mayor Peterson administration which was elected upon a promise of economy which hardly seems to be offered by the proposed expenditures which appear at least 55 per cent higher than anything the organized taxpayers anticipated after a quite careful study of all possible sources of probable income during the fiscal year.

The current bill indicates that the aldermanic council inherited from the late commission at least $53,000 unpaid claims against the city.

No good citizen objects to paying taxes, when such taxes are based on a fair valuation and the tax dollar brings a maximum return.

URGE PROBE OF HIGH RECEIVERSHIP FEES

"Cannot a public official act as a receiver with minimum fees, and not fees of lawyers be restricted?" was a little question asked of President Hoover by the militant taxpayers' organization in the Lake County Taxpayers' News and now that little question has become a big one all over the United States.

The metropolitan press, its daily featuring articles by this and that authority who tries to prove that everything is O. K., but the question does not down.

The Illinois auditor, Oscar Nelson, is quoted in the Tribune as saying, "Recent reports of high fees paid receivers are obtained from court records and have not always been true. It is easy for a receiver to request a high amount for his services in a court petition, but we don't have to pay the amount he demands and where we find the amount excessive we pay what we think is just."

The press probe is digging deep and soon the public may learn just what the receivers asked and what the court allowed upon the auditor's recommendation.

The silence on lawyers' fees is significant; however, the press may yet turn its probe into all forms of political racketeering of the public's purse when the plight of the people offers rich plunder.

An appeal was made by Lake county's militant taxpayers to the patriotic press to purge American politics of "easy money" for politicians at the expense of taxpayers whose tax money is tied up in closed banks.

PLIGHT OF PEOPLE OFFERS RICH PLUNDER

Press Asked to Purge Politics of "Easy Money"

The attorney general has ruled that there is no power by which a township through a special election of the board may levy a tax to support the poor. Counties may charge townships for the care of a pauper of the township in the county poor farm.

The county board cannot longer employ a county physician; however, the board may pay a physician to look after the paupers in the poor house if they are not a charge of a township.

No provision has been made for a special tax levy by townships to care for the poor.

The attorney general thinks, the townships should use their open credit with merchants to get support for the paupers until next April when a levy can be made. When such a levy has been made, anticipation warrants may be issued and used in payment of goods obtained upon open credit.

Many think few merchants will take the chance of feeding and heating the paupers until next April.

The county clerk of Lake county, Lew Hendee, returned from Springfield conferences but had nothing to offer to solve the mysteries provided by the politicians' picnic of recent date and consequently the plight of Lake county's poor remains a source of perdition for the picnic politicians.

DOCTORS OFFER FREE SERVICE TO SICK POOR

Offer Spurned; Men Would Retain High Salaried Physician

During the past few days reports have appeared in the local press that the county cannot legally hire a county physician. There is scant humor in the reported desperate efforts of Obee, Dilger and Lew Hendee to discover some loophole in the law that will make it possible to continue this $10,000 annual expenditure of tax money for the part-time services of one physician. It will indeed be interesting to see if, at a time when funds are so seriously needed for actual poor relief, these men will succeed in continuing this bountiful subsidy of tax money to one man.

It is most apparent to any informed citizen that the county's sick poor need not suffer under the new ruling. More than a year ago the Lake county Medical society offered to provide medical attention for the county's hospitalized sick poor absolutely gratis. We have not seen that the board of supervisors has ever conferred with representatives of the medical society about this offer. Why is this offer ignored. Particularly why are Obee, Dilger and Hendee still ignoring it? The attitude of the board of supervisors is strange indeed.

Following this offer of free medical services last year, the American Legion made a comprehensive investigation of the county hospital situation and in their report published several months ago enumerated many conditions needing correction and recommended that radical changes be made. Several of the service clubs and other civic interested organizations, after independent investigation, corroborated the findings and concurred in the recommendations of the American Legion. The press reports indicate that the reception of these reports by the board of supervisors was the signal for Mr. Obee, since elected chairman of the board, to arise on the floor and loudly excrete everyone concerned in asking some relief of intolerable conditions.

It appears that the board of supervisors was intent on effectually stopping any further objections when they recently announced that they had entered into a 2-year contract (previously this period has always been for one year only) with the physician this county has almost continuously subsidized for eight years to continue his services on the same high rate basis as he has been paid for many years. It deserves comment that at all these years of subsidy from county tax funds, this physician's name does not appear on the records as a property tax payer in Lake county.

The time for plain speaking and clear explanations has arrived. What motive leads these men to insist on paying tax money for services offered gratis? Why are these men searching for evasive methods of increasing taxes? Why are the recommendations of unbiased responsible groups of citizens shelved?

Certain important facts seem evident:

1. The sick poor must not be neglected.
2. The responsibility for their neglect if it occurs rests directly on members of the board of supervisors who have obstructed a sensible and economical solution of this problem.
3. No individual physician is worth a $10,000 annual subsidy of tax money to this community for his part time services.
4. A proposition such as the Medical society has made certainly merits a trial and on its face at least seems to offer a permanent solution of the problem at hand.

and their "bonehead" provisions for the paupers.

The Lake County Taxpayers News puts the problems in mild form, but now state officials are waking up to the meaning of the "bonehead" legislation in passing the care of the poor from the county to townships without any provision for a special tax levy.

The only immediate way out of the mess is to vote out the supervisors and provide three commissioners, unless the governor can be influenced to call a special session of the legislature to cure the trouble; however, it is likely the governor will leave the counties to their own available remedy of voting out the supervisors for commissioners.

HintsBANANAS ARE NUTRITIOUS AND
QUICKLY SERVEDMay Be Used as a Fruit or Cooked as a Fresh
Vegetable

Bananas are used in nearly every home today, but usually in the natural state, eaten with sugar and cream, in salads, or just plain.

The banana is one of the most important carbohydrate (heat or energy-producing) foods and is a good source of two of the other four food elements—mineral salts and vitamins. It also contains some protein and fat, but in small quantities. In addition to its agreeable and distinctive flavor, the banana heads the list of fresh fruits and surpasses most of the vegetables in food value.

Tests by eminent dietitians have shown that in the fully ripe condition the banana is easily digestible and may be given safely to children.

The banana is the fruit of a certain species of Musa, a tree which grows abundantly in the lowlands of the tropics that have an ample rainfall. The plant attains a height ranging from 18 to 30 feet in about fourteen months and produces only one bunch or "stem" of bananas. When the fruit is harvested, the tree is cut down.

Used as a Vegetable.
The discriminating housekeeper recognizes the value of the banana as a vegetable—baked or fried; in the tropics they are often used as such and make an excellent substitute for the potato.

Even flour, or bread itself, would be less able to support the laborious Negro so as to enable him to do his business, according to Dr. William Wright.

Banana Cake with Jelly Sauce.

1 cup flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup milk
1 egg
4 bananas

Sift together the flour, baking powder, sugar and salt; add milk and beaten egg; mix well. Peel and scrape bananas; cut in halves, lengthwise, then across. Pour batter into greased shallow pan, place bananas on top and sprinkle with sugar. Bake in moderate oven 15 minutes. Serve with Jelly Sauce.

1 cup water

The season's newest combination are suede and calf, calf and reptile, kid and reptile, all-over reptile, patents and vic's kids. Ties, oxfords and straps are featured.

2 tablespoons jelly
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon corn starch
Put water into saucepan; bring to a boil; add jelly and sugar; stir until dissolved; add corn starch with a little cold water; boil 3 minutes.

Banana Fritters

1 cup flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon powdered sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 egg
3/4 cup milk
1 tablespoon lemon juice
3 bananas

Mix and sift dry ingredients. Add others in order. Force bananas through sieve before adding. Beat thoroughly. Drop by spoonfuls into hot fat. Drain and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Baked Banana Salad.

Baked bananas are easily assimilated. Put two bananas in a shallow pan and bake until soft. Force through a coarse sieve. Soften two tablespoons gelatin in one-half cup cold water. Cool and add to banana pulp, together with one-half cup lemon juice and three tablespoons powdered sugar. Turn into very small cups which have been dipped in cold water, and chill. Turn out, cut in slices, and arrange on lettuce leaves. Put a spoonful of mayonnaise dressing on each piece, and garnish with a walnut meat.

Berries

Many women make scores of glasses of jelly because they know the men of the house as well as the children are very fond of it. Comparatively few, however, really appreciate the full value of the jelly prepared for winter consumption. Used as a garnish, for instance, jelly induces many a child to eat some healthful cereal or milk dessert that would otherwise be refused. Here are two recipes by Anna Schuyler for delicious jellies that I am sure you will be interested in:

Blackberry Jelly.

Use sound, ripe, but not overripe berries. Pick out any bad ones, wash and crush. Heat slowly without adding any water and boil about 3 minutes. Drain through a cheesecloth bag and then through a flannel one without squeezing. A second lot of juice can be obtained by removing the pulp from the bag, covering with water, and boiling for 3 to 4 minutes. Strain through a jelly bag and keep separate from first juice. Add 1 cup sugar for each cup juice. Boil to the jelling point. Fill into glasses.

Orange and Lemon Jelly.

Cut six oranges and six lemons in slices about 1/4 inch thick. Measure and add 1 1/2 cups water to each cup fruit. Boil gently 60 minutes or until perfectly soft. Drain through a cheesecloth bag over night. If not perfectly clear, drain again through flannel. To each cup of juice add 3/4 cup sugar. Boil to jelling point. Fill into glasses.

Feet May Become
Raw and Painful
in Hot Weather

The Chinese girl's lovely, useless feet are just about the last thing any woman would desire during these hot summer days. Feet generally bear their burdens without much complaint, but during the "dog days" everyone should be prepared for a rebellion, or an uprising, unless the proper care has been given them.

First to be considered, of course, is the matter of shoes. Heavy, pinching, hot, or too small shoes wear down the resistance of the best-trained feet, while light, cool and comfortable footwear allows for air circulation.

Healthy Feet Are Dry.
If the feet are scrubbed every day with soap and water, all traces of the day's work, dirt and perspiration are removed. Massage with a little foot lotion does wonders toward stimulating the circulation.

The skin on cramped, hot feet is very likely to break; particularly between the toes, but may be prevented very easily by applying foot powder, and also by dropping powder into the shoes and stockings.

What's more, tired aching feet are one of the best means of causing face wrinkles for those ladies who have a fondness for these little fine lines and crow's tracks.

TOPPY'S TRAVELS

Synopsis: Topsy leaves home to follow his canary. After many adventures, Mr. Frog and Toy, the dewdrop, cause the Cushions to fight the Pillows, who have invaded the land of the Cloud-Queen. The Pillows, however, seem to be winning from the Cushions, so Topsy trains an army of the Cloud-people, while Toy and the falcon go to spy in the land of the Cushions. Continue the story—

Topsy developed his idea for an attack, and drilled the soldiers every night, while he waited for Toy and the falcon to return.

After four days had passed, and they did not appear as he had instructed them, he became worried. Day after day passed and still they did not return. The soldiers became uneasy, and wanted to set out for the land of the Cushions immediately, but Topsy bade them wait just a little longer.

It would be dangerous to go, without knowing the position of the enemy, he knew. As he lay in the grass one day, pondering this problem, he was startled to hear a familiar, gruff voice croak, "So this is the way you train your soldiers. Very good way, very good way. Humph!"

"Mr. Frog!" exclaimed Topsy, delighted. "Where are Toy and the falcon? What is the enemy doing? How is the Cloud-Queen? Do you know?" "Are you so ignorant that you think I can answer all these questions at once?" demanded Mr. Frog.

"Not quite," answered Topsy, "but what has been happening?"

"If it wasn't for me, nothing of any benefit would ever happen," began Mr. Frog in his usual boastful way.

"Toy and the falcon are imprisoned with some of the Cushions in the court."

"Did the Pillows capture them?" asked Topsy, his heart sinking.

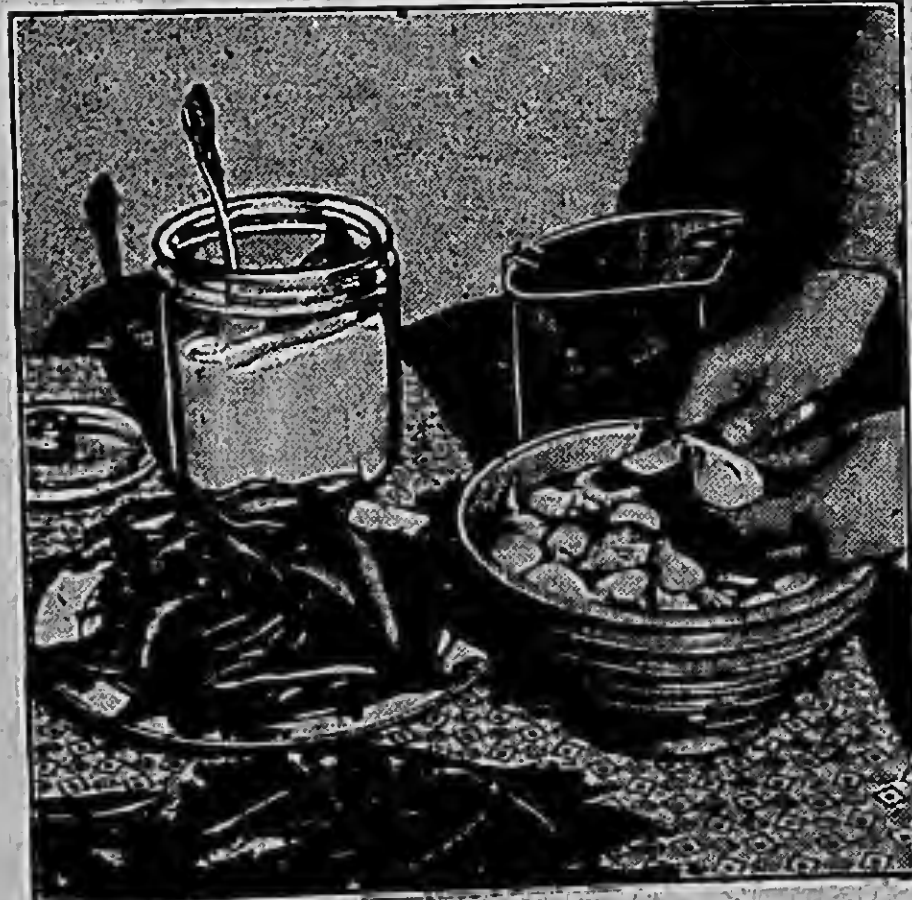

"No, they were clever enough to get into the court to see the Cushion leaders, but when they came to go they found that more Pillows had arrived."

Sugar Is Vegetable Seasoner

By Jane Rogers

THE old fashioned way of cooking vegetables was to boil them until all taste had disappeared and then garnish with a sauce that disguised what little flavor was left. The Continental chef has taught the modern housewife that this method is wrong. Peas, carrots, string beans, in fact almost any green vegetable, can be made to taste as if it had left the garden only a few minutes before, by following a few simple rules for cooking and seasoning. Just enough water should be used to barely cover. A generous dash of sugar should be added while cooking to restore garden flavor. Salt also should be usually be added to the vegetable when cooking, while the time for the pepper and butter is just before serving.

"Eyes" of the Blind Now Wears Boots

Reginald D. White, blind war veteran, and his faithful German police dog, Wicker. White has rewarded his "eyes," as he calls him, with four boots for his blistered feet that he may guide his master about San Francisco streets on his daily duties. Wicker made his wants known to his charge by putting a hot blistered foot in the hand of White the other day when the mercury soared to nearly the hundred mark.

Larger Parcel Post Packages

By virtue of a regulation recently enacted by the postmaster general and approved by the interstate commerce commission, the size of parcels which may be sent by parcel post has been increased from a maximum length and girth of 31 inches to 100 inches with a weight limit of 70 pounds. Ralph E. Dakin, postal inspector detailed to the division of parcel post, and Jesse C. Harriman, director of parcel post, are seen checking one of the first of the new-sized packages.

"Flying High" Beauty and Chorines Favor Coffee and Mocha Recipes

If you were a successful musical comedy actress who had been selected as one of the three most beautiful in America, and you were a taffy blonde and could sing and dance—you would be pretty careful about diet because upon your face and your figure and your energy would depend your entire future.

Miss Joanna Allen is that very musical comedy actress, now on tour as the leading lady of "Flying High." She is not a food addict, for she agrees with the best modern scientific thought that to obtain benefits from food one must enjoy it, but she has made a careful study of diet, nevertheless.

"Perhaps," says this lovely actress, "I am lucky because I do enjoy good things to eat. I like sweet foods, not only because of their taste, but also because of the much-needed energy that sugar gives. I enjoy savory meats and vegetables. And I enjoy hot beverages, particularly coffee. Coffee is a tonic to me. I have it at meals and in my dressing room between acts. And at home I often make coffee-flavored desserts, which are a sort of hobby along with dancing. Here are a few recipes I have collected:

Coffee Parfait
1 cup sugar 1 cup strong coffee
1 cup water 1 cup whipped cream
3 egg whites 2 cups whipped cream
Cook the sugar and water until they form a thick syrup; beat the egg whites and pour the boiling syrup over them. Cool, add coffee, and when cold add whipped cream. Mix all well, put in mold, cover closely, bury in ice several hours.

Coffee Souffle Pie

2 tablespoons 2 eggs
granulated 1/4 teaspoon salt gelatin 1 teaspoon
1/2 cup hot water vanilla
2 cups hot coffee 1 cup cream
1/2 cup sugar

1 tablespoon sugar
Soak gelatin in the water, add hot coffee and 1/2 cup sugar. Stir until dissolved and pour over egg yolks beaten slightly with one tablespoon sugar. Cook in top of double boiler until thickened. Remove from fire and add salt and vanilla. Let this cool, stirring often. When it begins to set, beat hard, folding in egg whites and cream, both stiffly beaten. Cool while mixture is thick enough to pile well on spoon, then turn into baked pastry shell and chill.

Mocha Surprise Cake

4 small sponge 1 pint vanilla ice cakes cream
1 cup strong 1/2 pint whipped coffee cream

Slice sponge cakes crosswise in halves. Place in dish and pour coffee over them. Let stand 15 minutes, add ice cream and whipped cream. Garnish with chopped almonds and serve.

Young Diver Finds "Sunken Treasure" In the Fox River

Copper and brass ingots, stolen from the American Brass Co., Chicago, weighing about 3,500 pounds and valued at between $1,500 and $3,000 were found in the Fox river, at the Fox river county park Sunday by Maynard Robbins of Kenosha as he was diving for clams.

After Robbins had brought up about 600 pounds, he was joined by four Chicago friends, Anthony Parrepto, L. H. Hardy and two others, who began diving for the valuable ingots, Parrepto and his friends bringing up 750 pounds.

Hardy obtained about 600 pounds and set out for Chicago to try and sell the metal. However, when authorities were notified of the discovery they located Hardy, and asked him to surrender the ingots, which he did willingly. After questioning him, officials were satisfied that he had not stolen the metal, and released him.

Upon the return of the ingots, the American Brass Co. hired Robbins, Parrepto and his friends to dive for the rest of the treasure. They dived repeatedly, until they had brought up about 1,400 pounds more.

Chicago and Kenosha officials are now in pursuit of the thief who stole the ingots from the American Brass Co., and dumped them into the river, in a convenient place where they could be easily taken out, and sold later.

Sun's Heat

Don't be bullied around another winter by harboring these parasites in your basement. Smoky Jim gets into everything, and Joe Heavyash is always underfoot like a hall and chain. Pa Bentback loves to park on loaded shovels, while Sambo Soot scurries around musing up the whole house. And if you don't keep scratching Old Man Clinker's back with the poker, he'll try to break every grate in your furnace. Get rid of them all by ordering Koppers Coke. It's lighter on the shovel, smokeless and sootless, and leaves no ash worth sifting.

WICK-WICK & BOO-BOO ISLAND

When I spied those foot-prints in th' sand I knew wa'd be in for it. Then I saw a big savage armed with a war-club watchin' us. We lit out for th' jungle, ducked into th' brush and crawled into a hollow stump. But that feller was smart. Before I knew what was up a big brown hand reached down, lifted me out and dropped me down on top of th' stump. Wow! that big brown warrior looked fierce. "What name you?" he growled. When I told him he glared at me like he would nip my head off. Kangy and Singoot were mighty scared, and when th' savage pointed to th' jungle and roared "Skibooch," you can just bet we skibooched, with him pokin' me along with his war-club. Pretty soon we came out into a clearin' with a grass house in th' center of it. Then all of a sudden th' big feller commenced to laugh, told me he was a joker, and that he wouldn't hurt me. Then he told me his name was Wick-Wick and introduced a fat, brown woman and a little fat, brown youngster as th' Missus and little Wick-Wick. Pretty soon we were th' best of friends. Wick-Wick then told me that another white man lived on a little island close by. I wanted to see this white man so my brown friend paddled my pals and me over to th' island. Right then was when trouble started for us. Don't miss my next yarn!
